

About Kay (Kosuke) Kato, President and Investment Evangelist, WealthPark Lab

Kay Kato held key positions in global major investment companies, including fund manager and investment enlightenment mentor. He is now based in Japan. He once resided in the U.K. and the U.S. for about 10 years and had investment experience in 30 countries around the world. With the conviction that “real-world experience is important, and you and the person you are advising are in the same boat,” he is highly experienced in individual asset management, including financial assets in both Japan and overseas as well as real estate (single-unit, multi-unit apartments, and overseas). He holds a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Columbia University. He is also a Certified Public Accountant, a Financial Planner, and the member of Securities Analysts Association of Japan’s “Securities Analyst (CMA). He is currently enrolled in the University of Cambridge Executive Program (GMCA), and is a visiting scholar of The Investment Trusts Association, Japan. Hobbies and interests include tennis, traveling, and visiting parks. Father of two.