

“Kyo no Ondokoro OKAZAKI #1”

91-85, Okazaki Enshojicho, Sakyo-ku, Kyoto-shi

-OPEN: April, 2018

-Capacity: 1 to 6 guests

Kyo no Ondokoro OKAZAKI #1 is situated in the Okazaki district within walking distance from 12 temples and shrines, including Heian Shrine. The townhouse was made by renovating an approximately 90-year-old Kyoto-style traditional house. It has a Japanese-style room with “horigotatsu,” or a sunken foot warmer, as well as a spot garden recreating the geographical features of Kyoto.

“Kyo no Ondokoro KAMANZA-NIJO #2”

690-2, Kamimatsuya-cho, Kamanza, Nakagyo-ku, Kyoto-shi

-OPEN: August, 2018

-Capacity: 1 to 4 guests

Kyo no Ondokoro KAMANZA-NIJO #2 was made by renovating a 150-year-old Kyoto-style traditional house near the Nijo Castle. “minä perhonen” brand designer Akira Minagawa supervised the project and architect Yoshifumi Nakamura designed the building. Its library facing the garden has a collection of about 200 books and its “Hinoki” (Japanese cypress) bathroom has an egg-shaped bathtub made of Japanese umbrella pine.

“Kyo no Ondokoro GOKOMACHI-EBISUGAWA #3”

574, Matsumoto-cho, Gokomachi-ebisugawa,

Nakagyo-ku, Kyoto-shi

-OPEN: November, 2018

-Capacity: 1 to 4 guests

Kyo no Ondokoro GOKOMACHI-EBISUGAWA #3, situated near the Kyoto Imperial Palace, was made by renovating a 90-year-old Kyoto-style traditional house that had been built in the style of a tea ceremony house. Its kitchen is equipped with Kiyomizu-ware bowls and a coffee mill and antique cups, teaware and other equipment for drinking tea and coffee. It is a townhouse looking like a high-quality, modern teahouse.

“Kyo no Ondokoro FUYACHO-NIJO #4”

502, Hoteiya-cho, Nakagyo-ku, Kyoto-shi

-OPEN: March, 2019

-Capacity: 1 to 8 guests

Kyo no Ondokoro FUYACHO-NIJO #4, situated near the Kyoto Imperial Palace, was made by renovating a large Kyoto-style tradesmen’s house with a total floor space of more than 180 square meters. It is a townhouse with a mixture of traditional Japanese design and modern art, allowing guests to feel the traditional Japanese culture. Japanese-style room can be used as a tea ceremony room and the bathroom has a Shigaraki-ware bathtub.

Journalists as well as members of the general public can preview the Kyo no Ondokoro FUYACHO-NIJO #4 townhouse from Monday, March 18, in advance of its grand opening. Those who wish to preview the facility are required to contact Wacoal Corp.’s Public Relations and Advertising Division. Those who wish to preview the OKAZAKI #1, KAMANZA-NIJO #2 and GOKOMACHI-EBISUGAWA #3 townhouses and wish to have photos of these facilities should also contact the company’s Public Relations and Advertising Division.
