

For immediate release

Fuji Xerox Announces Responsibility Changes of its Corporate Officers

TOKYO, June 20, 2018 – Fuji Xerox Co., Ltd. announces the following changes in corporate officers' responsibilities effective June 20, decided at its Meeting of the Board of Directors held today.

Changes in corporate officers' duties, effective June 20

(changes are underlined)

Name	New duties	Previous duties
Go Miyazaki	Executive Vice President (newly appointed) and Director, Fuji Xerox, oversees domestic and overseas sales	Corporate Vice President, FUJIFILM Holdings
Hideto Ikoma	Corporate Vice President (newly appointed), responsible for solutions and services management and service delivery in Smart Work Innovation business	Deputy Executive General Manager of Smart Work Innovation Business Group
Keiichi Naito	Corporate Vice President (newly appointed), Fuji Xerox, responsible for corporate innovation, ICT strategy as well as General Manager of Corporate Innovation Office	President and Representative Director, FUJIFILM Business Expert

###

Xerox, Xerox and Design, as well as Fuji Xerox and Design are registered trademarks or trademarks of Xerox Corporation in Japan and/or other countries.