

For immediate release

Fuji Xerox Announces a New Director and Responsibility Changes of its Corporate Officers

TOKYO, March 28, 2019 – Fuji Xerox Co., Ltd. announces the appointment of a director effective March 19 as well as the following changes in corporate officers' responsibilities effective April 1.

Newly appointed director, effective March 19 (changes are underlined)

Name	New duties	Previous duties
Steven J. Bandrowczak	Director, Fuji Xerox. President & Chief Operations Officer, Xerox Corporation	President & Chief Operations Officer, Xerox Corporation

Changes in corporate officers' duties, effective April 1 (changes are underlined)

Name	New duties	Previous duties
Go Miyazaki	Executive Vice President and Director, oversees domestic/overseas sales, corporate communications, and services & support	Executive Vice President and Director, oversees domestic/overseas sales and corporate communications
Daiji Nagaoka	Corporate Vice President, responsible for software development and electronics development, as well as Executive General Manager of Software & Electronics Development Group	Corporate Vice President, responsible for software development, as well as Executive General Manager of Software Development Group

Retiring corporate officers, effective March 31

- Shuji Aso
- Yoshikazu Sato (To be appointed to Senior Vice President of Fuji Xerox Manufacturing Co., Ltd. as of April 1)
- Hideto Ikoma

###

Xerox, Xerox and Design, as well as Fuji Xerox and Design are registered trademarks or trademarks of Xerox Corporation in Japan and/or other countries.