

For immediate release

Fuji Xerox Announces Management Changes

TOKYO, June 25, 2019 – Fuji Xerox Co., Ltd. announces the following changes in its corporate officers, effective June 25 as well as July 1.

Newly appointed corporate officers and changes in their duties, effective June 25 as well as July 1:

(changes are underlined)

Name	New duties	Previous duties
Amane Inoue	Effective June 25: Corporate Vice President (newly appointed), as well as President and Representative Director of Fuji Xerox System Service Co., Ltd. Effective July 1: Corporate Vice President, responsible for Advanced Industrial Services business as well as Executive General Manager of Advanced Industrial Services Business Group, and President and Representative Director of Fuji Xerox System Service Co., Ltd.	--
Toshiharu Yoneyama	Effective July 1: Corporate Vice President, responsible for solutions & services management in Enterprise Document Solutions business as well as Senior General Manager of Enterprise Document Solutions Business Group	Corporate Vice President, responsible for Smart Work Innovation business as well as Executive General Manager of Smart Work Innovation Business Group
Masahiro Fujimaki	Effective July 1: Corporate Vice President, responsible for product development in Enterprise Document Solutions business, as well as Senior General Manager of Enterprise Document Solutions Business Group	Corporate Vice President, responsible for product development in Enterprise Document Solutions business

###

Xerox, Xerox and Design, as well as Fuji Xerox and Design are registered trademarks or trademarks of Xerox Corporation in Japan and/or other countries.