

Information about The Waseda International House of Literature
(The Haruki Murakami Library)

Name:	The Waseda International House of Literature (Nickname: The Haruki Murakami Library)
Location	Waseda Campus, Waseda University 1-6-1 Nishiwaseda, Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo
Access:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ 7-min walk from Waseda Station, Tozai Line (Tokyo Metro) ▪ 15-min walk from Nishiwaseda Station, Fukutoshin Line (Tokyo Metro) ▪ 20-min walk from Takadanobaba Station, Yamanote Line (JR) or Seibu Shinjuku Line (Seibu Railway)
No. of floors:	6 (B1 to 5F)
Facilities:	B1: Stair Bookshelf, Café, Lounge, etc. 1F: Information, Gallery, Audio Room 2F: Exhibition Room, Lab, Studio 3F: Research Collection Stacks, Closed Stacks 4F: Seminar Rooms, Researcher's Offices 5F: Administrative Office, Director's Office Note: 3F to 5F are not open to the public.
Total areas:	2,147 m ²
Designer:	Kengo Kuma and Associates
Opening hours:	10:00 – 17:00 (Closed on Wednesdays) Please kindly visit the official website for more details on opening hours. Note: As part of the University's Covid-19 preventative measures, visitors will be required to make a reservation online beforehand (https://www.waseda.jp/culture/wihl/en). Reservation not needed to visit the cafe on B1.
Entrance fee:	Free
Director:	Hirokazu Toeda, Professor at Faculty of Letters, Arts and Sciences
Adviser:	Robert Campbell, Specially Appointed Professor, Waseda University
Opening day:	Friday, October 1, 2021
Homepages:	Waseda International House of Literature (Haruki Murakami Library) https://www.waseda.jp/culture/wihl/en/ Waseda International House of Literature Virtual Annex https://www.waseda.jp/inst/wihl-annex/en
Media Inquiry:	https://www.waseda.jp/top/en/for-business/media
General inquiry:	Waseda International House of Literature Admin Office