

PRESS RELEASE

Japan Youth Hostels, Inc. releases new podcast that every traveler to Japan should listen to Tokyo, Japan – January 9, 2018 Japan Youth Hostels, Inc. (HI-Japan), an organization dedicated to providing affordable accommodation in Japan, is launching a new podcast series “HI! Japan Podcast”. Available on iTunes and Stitcher from January 9th, 2018, the podcast offers must-know tips that help listeners get the most out of their stay in Japan.

While many fans of the country have independently produced videos and podcasts giving travel advice, HI Japan Podcast is the first of its kind to deliver in-depth information with professional quality. “We’re very pleased with the wealth of information we are able to offer in the podcast,” said International Relations and Marketing Manager Kazumasa Ikeda. “We hope that this helps ease some of the worries that keep people from coming to Japan, and that listeners use our advice to make their dreams of travelling to Japan come true.”

Season 1, with 4 episodes, covers the following topics:

- 001 - Why Visit Japan? - 8 reasons why Japan should be your next holiday destination
  - 002 - How Expensive Is Japan? - The facts about traveling to Japan on a budget
  - 003 - How To Get Around In Japan - Is a Japan Rail Pass worth it for traveling in Japan?
  - 004 - Staying Connected In Japan - What you need to know
- Production by Japan World Link Ltd / Hosted by Jeremy Enns -

The podcast is available from both iTunes and Stitcher at:

iTunes : <https://itunes.apple.com/gb/podcast/hi-japan/id1331839124>

Stitcher: <https://www.stitcher.com/podcast/hosteling-international-japan/hi-japan>

The blog (<https://medium.com/hi-japan-travel-guide>) also includes a summary of the content covered in the podcast.

Contact: Japan Youth Hostels, Inc. (HI-Japan)

Email: press@jyh.or.jp

Web: <http://www.jyh.or.jp>

Address: c/o National Youth Center 3-1

Yoyogikamizono-cho, Shibuya-ku, Tokyo,

Japan 151-0052