

<Supporters comments> *listed in no particular order.

CEO of REALITY, Inc., DJ RIO, said: In the age of the metaverse, where the physical real world and the digital real world mix without boundaries, the entertainment business will also be restructured. We support Brave group as it takes on the challenge of capturing such an era on a global scale.

CEO of nanameue, inc., Takahiro Ishihama, said: I support Brave group to create a democratized IP. In the recent upsurge of NFT, Japanese originated IPs are struggling. The reason is simple: it is inconvenient for NFT holders to use them freely. This has resulted in IPxNFT that cannot be owned by the holders in the middle of the market.

I am very excited to hear this story because Brave group led by Mr. Noguchi has the ability to launch a global brand that matches the recent context, IP in the era of democratization with 0 ->1. I will give them my full support.

CEO of 9st Inc., Kyosuke Kato said: In the past, Japan gave birth to many characters, which are loved by people all over the world, and as VR/AR technology evolves and the metaverse gives birth to development, we have a once in a lifetime opportunity to create IP in a new form. I'd like people to see the artists they have created performance. people will be thrilled by the fresh experience. We are rooting for them with the hope that they will become a new source of excitement and enthusiasm for people around the world.

CEO of Thirdverse, Inc., Hironao Kunimitsu said: I am convinced that Brave group will be one of the companies that can create a new type of entertainment, IP x Metaverse, in the coming Metaverse era.

I am looking forward to working with you as one of the most encouraging members of the Brave group, who will be responsible for bringing new entertainment from Japan to the world.

Group President and CEO of SEPTENI HOLDINGS CO., LTD., Koki Sato said: As one of the entrepreneurs aiming to create IP that will spread from smartphones to the world, centered on manga and anime, I truly share the vision that Brave group has set forth. I will continue to support Brave group in creating businesses that originated in Japan and reach the world, centered on virtual IP, in the great ocean of the Metaverse. I respect you, Mr. Noguchi.

CEO of Reiwa Travel Co., Ltd., Takaya Shinozuka said: Mr. Noguchi is an entrepreneur with a proven track record of doing hard work, and the Brave group team is full of attractive people who will surely realize the grand vision that we have set forth.

I am confident that they will bring about a revolution in the IP and Metaverse industry.

☆Taku Takahashi said: I am very excited about the updates that Brave group has made to fit the modern entertainment world, and I am very excited to be a part of it. I look forward to seeing the company become the center of an era in which the barriers between the Internet and the real world are disappearing, and I look forward to seeing the company's success in the world.